Have no fear of moving into the unknown. Simply step out fearlessly knowing that I am with you, therefore no harm can befall you; all is very, very well. Do this in complete faith and confidence. ~ Pope John Paul II

For the Ride Home

~ By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- Repent and be baptized, every one of you ... (Acts 2:38)
- The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. (Psalm 23)
- When he was insulted, he returned no insult; (1 Peter 2:23)
- ... I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, (John 10:9)

Reflection

- Have you received comfort in time of trouble from Psalm 23?
- Do you follow Jesus' example (1 Peter) by not returning violence or insult?
- Does Jesus offer a radically different way from the way of the world?
- How do we enter a different world?
- Could the world be different?

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all victims of all wars and violence among individuals and nations;

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children who suffer and will suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war;

Hear my voice when I ask you to instill into the hearts of human beings the wisdom of peace, the strength of justice, and the joy of fellowship;

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes in every country and in every period of history who do not want war and are ready to walk the road to peace;

Hear my voice and grant insight and strength so that we may always respond to hatred with love, to injustice with total dedication to justice, to need with the sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my voice and grant unto the world your everlasting peace.¹

¹Pope John Paul II, A Pilgrim Pope – Messages for the World, edited Cardinal Achille Silvestrini, Andrew McMeel Publishing; Kansas City: 1999, p. 48.

Diocesan Social Justice Commission

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you (falsely) because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

~ Matthew 5:3-12

Reflection Questions for Next Week

Jesus, our cornerstone.

Children: What are some ways that you can act like Jesus would if he were in your situation?

Youth: In today's world, where advertising and other forces of many kinds try to attract you, what strategies do you follow to make sure you are following Christ, the only one who can lead you to happiness and fulfillment?

Adults: How are the promises of this Gospel passage made real in your own life? How do you experience yourself doing greater works than even Jesus did?
